Dear Governor Palin,

Thanks for coming to Sitka for Alaska Day, and special thanks for helping us dedicate the Southeast Alaska Career Center.

Also, Dave Dapcevich has a great photo of you posted on his website from the Castle Hill transfer ceremony (www.sitka.com). Here is the link:

Governor Palin,

Please begin to consider the possibility of being the vice-presidential candidate for our party. I think you would really add a lot to the ticket for whoever gets the presidential nod for our party. If a buzz develops; please don't reject the idea too quickly. Please think about it. Thank you.

Off the record...

One of our friendly reporters has been listening to the house floor sessions on ppt during the murk administration where ramras was opposed to the ppt they were voting on and disgusted by the oil lobbyists he saw marching up to the gov's office. And he vowed that if he was tricked by the industry and their lobbyists when it came to this important tax policy then he would come back to jnu angry and pounding on the table demanding answers. Now today he says he doesn't know why he's here and doesn't think there is anything wrong w ppt! What a flippin flip-flopper! What happened to the accountability in what you say and do?!? If this doesn't come out in a story (which I think it will) than I'm making sure it comes out in a letter to the editor.

Hello Governor,

I'm stuck in Ketchikan and won't make it back before 1:00pm.

Susan will be there at 7:30am. She'll keep the plumbers, etc downstairs until you leave or you give her the go ahead to let them go upstairs. There's plenty for them to do downstairs, so there's no rush.

The workers start their day at 7:30am, but that can be changed to 8:00 when you're at the House.

Current projects: plumbing replacement, windows (onging...), and generator replacement (begins today).

Thank you,

Erika

Mike- i'll need you to travel to sitka to meet with the mayor (and any other community leaders) to hear their serious concerns about the ferries. Again, as I explained when Beth and I returned, it was unexpected (and inexcusable) to have been bombarded with the residents' concerns expressed everywhere we went.

It would be good for you to get out and about Alaska anyway! And since it's just a puddle jump over there I ask you (I'll have janice do so) to schedule in the next couple of days a visit to discuss with sitka all of their concerns. (It's ok that their leggies won't be there... Randy and Russ can follow up with leggies.)

There are any issues we can't keep putting off - this is one of them.

Thanks mike, appreciate you doing this and look forward to giving you more opportunties to travel to other areas, as you can tell it's impossible for me to be everywhere at once and you can step in on some of these. Thanks!

I had a good talk with Melissa Stepovich today. Sounds like she could use help here with the "business" community. I offered myself up and asked her to get me scheduled with the Fairbanks Chamber (to speak). I am doing Anch Chamber next week.

Also, I suggested she think strategically about using both of us, whether together or separate. I don't usually hear if I've been requested as a backup for you until after you decline. Often that's too late as I've already committed somewhere else. I asked Melissa to let me know if she's requesting me as your backup on something when she makes the request to Janice and I'll at least have it on the radar ahead of time. (I will also see if Kelly and Janice are communicating this way.)

I talked with Mike yesterday requesting permission to miss the cabinet meeting tomorrow. I really hated to ask but Bill Fickus's memorial is tomorrow in Fairbanks. He and his wife Lil lived at Crevis Creek in the Brooks Range for years. Lil is from Ft Yukon. They and their children have treated Sharon and I like family. We were always welcome to stop there while flying in the Brooks or rafting the John River. I rechecked the times and the only way I can attend is if I travel on the 11:00 am flight to Fairbanks. Because the cabinet meeting is so important, Marty would be willing to fill in for me. If any times change I would also call in.

For my schedule, I feel I need to attend the breakfast for the CEO of Anglo, Tuesday morning, before I go to Fairbanks. I would be back to Anchorage on the 6:00 am flight Wednesday morning.

Thanks for your consideration   Tom

"New Archangel Russian Dancers"

However, we hope you enjoyed the "Seattle FIrefighters Pipes and Drums" with the "Portland Oregon Firefighters Pipes and Drums" as they played for Sitka's very own "Sitka Spruce Highland Dancers"> I am the Director ot the "Sitka Spruce Highland Dancers", and am very happy that you came.

Sitka Pioneers Homes residents and staff were thrilled that you visited and took time to meet some of them. Thank you!

The Japanese artists performed with the Juneau Symphony this weekend, and will do a small performance at "Glacier Valley School" in the Valley this Monday (October 22nd) morning for Ms. Lorrie Heagy's class. I understand Ms. Heagy is the sole recipient of a very special award from the "Kennedy Center", which promotes arts in the schools. She is the only recipient of this award west of the Mississippi. New studies document that children who have access to music, dance, and other artistic venues, do far better accademically than those who do not.

Please consider visiting Ms. Heagy's classroom today, noon-1pm, while the Japanese artists are there. They will perform for the children, along with Kathleen Wayne, and a few other artists from Juneau. Also, some of the children will perform for the Japanese ladies.

Please remember that the Japanes artists are on a cultural exchange from IAC Tokyo, an organization dedicated to keeping world peace through the cultural exchange of performing artists.

Kathleen Wayne, would be a good contact if you could possibly attend this small activity. 907-789-1207 (home) 907-321-8030.

Thank you again, for coming to Sitka, marching in our parade, visiting our "New Performing Arts Center"--which still does not have a name, (we are waiting for someone to do something special to help finance completion), and visiting the Pioneer Home.

All the best,

Kris Fulton

Who would I even be meeting with? The community of Skwetna? Does Alexander Creek have an organized government or Native Corp representing the area?

It is our understanding that you may soon be meeting with representatives of Alexander Creek. On Friday, we learned that there might be a House hearing on November 14th on legislation proposed by Alexander Creek to grant them additional lands in the Mat-Su Valley.

With all of this in mind, and not knowing whether you ever saw my previous email on the Alexander Creek bill, I have attached my earlier email analyzing this legislation and suggesting how we might approach it, at least for the time being.

Alexander Creek is a Native group recognized pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, with corporate status chartered under State law. So, the corporation should have a president and board of directors. Joe or Frank may have more information on the specific individuals involved and possible meetings. I just didn't want you to be surprised by anyone at the AFN Convention.

Congressman Young may ask the Chairman of the House Resources Committee for a hearing on four Alaska bills - an AFN rural development initiative, a new Native veterans allotment bill, a Sealaska land exchange, and Alexander Creek. Only the development initiative is likely to be non-controversial.

Neither Congressman Young nor his staff has asked for anything from the State as yet. A staffer called on Friday to advise us of a possible hearing on November 14th.

This slide tells a good story about why we need to arrest the escalation of the past. According to our number crunchers, spending has escalated on average at 14% per year across the last five years. You can also see where the forecasted revenue line goes in two years from now. Thought you should see it. Sean

Lt. Governor Parnell,

Attached is a modified version of the slide that you requested from Karen Rehfeld. For your reference, I have also included a slide which breaks down spending increases between FY04 and FY07 by major categories, in case you get questions about what types of expenditures were driving the spending increases during that period. I have attached a PowerPoint presentation with the 2 slides, as well an Adobe Acrobat version. The Adobe version may be useful if you do not have access to PowerPoint during your travels.

If you have any follow up issues or questions, please contact me.

Thanks.

Subject: Powerpoint Slide: Spending

Karen,

During the last Cabinet meeting we saw a slide showing state GF spending over the last 9 years (back to FY 99). It was a bar chart. Can I get that PowerPoint slide and include a bar for the FY 08 budget in it. I think it might tell a good story about beginning to arrest the growth of state spending and would like to include it in a presentation to some economic students in Fairbanks early next week. It would be interesting on another graph to show the trajectory—if we maintained the average rate of spending growth from the last four years—across the next four years FY 08, 09, 10, 11 and what that would look like. (Something we don't want to do but want to show what it would look like and compare ourselves to it).

That may be a partial way for the governor to get her arms around setting spending limits for our administration. I know she doesn't want to replicate the upward spending trajectory of the last four years. Thanks.

Sean
